“Let’s Talk About Tourism & Development”

Over forty chamber members registered for February 18th discussion of present and future development of tourism in the northern Lancaster County area. Sherri Stetler, Black Horse Lodge and Suites, hosted the event at the Foxchase Golf Club. Emphasis was placed on the number of tourists (some eight million per year in Lancaster County) and how northern Lancaster County can benefit from those tourists. The Ephrata Area Chamber of Commerce will be printing over 70,000 new tourism brochures to be distributed throughout the county and state. Call the Chamber 738.9010 for advertisement possibilities

The Ambassador Committee is still calling those members who have not renewed for year 2009. There was also discussion about the New Member Breakfast to be held Friday February 27 at The Udder Choice at 8:00 a.m. Please help us by getting all your information in to the Chamber Office – 738-9010.
